

featured topics...

9:00 —10:15 a.m.

RESEARCHING THE ENTIRE FAMILY

Focusing only on the direct line can cause significant information to be overlooked and larger patterns to go un-noticed. This lecture discusses via examples, the importance of researching the siblings and at least first cousins of a direct ancestor

.....lunch break <> 11:45 to 1:00.....

(lunch available at a nominal fee)

1:00 —2:15 p.m.

LAND RECORDS (PUBLIC LAND STATES)

This lecture discusses the basics of how land is described in public land states and effective search strategies for records in these localities, including a discussion of basic terminology. Intended for the researcher with little or no experience in land records.

10:30 —11:45 a.m.

BEGINNING GERMAN RESEARCH

This lecture discusses the beginning stages of German family history research.

2:30 —3:45 p.m.

RESEARCHING ON A TIGHT BUDGET

This lecture discusses some no-cost and low-cost ways to expand your genealogical research. Mention is also made of those times when “free” or “low-cost” is not possible.
